TATTLETALE

Attleboro High School
Attleboro, Massachusetts

MR. JAMES F. CASSIDY
Director of Physical Education
Head Coach of Basketball and Football

Dedication

A fine athlete himself, Coach Cassidy has succeeded in instilling in the boys on his teams the strong desire to win, tempered by a sense of fair play and good sportsmanship. By his own exemplary character and loyalty to his teams and the school, Coach Cassidy serves as an excellent model for the boys under his guidance.

All of us, whether players or spectators, would like to express our appreciation for the many outstanding teams he has led to victories and championships—for the surge of pride and unity of spirit we always feel when an AHS team takes the field.

In sincere gratitude for his devoted service, inspiring leadership—and for simply being the man he is, we dedicate the 1970 Tattletale to Mr. James F. Cassidy.

Foreword

When you read this foreword, you will realize that another school year is drawing to a close. For seniors, it will be our last year at Attleboro High. During the past three years, we have shared many experiences, some happy, some sad. Soon, all we will have left will be the memories of these occasions.

We, as the co-editors of the 1970 Tattletale, have chosen IMAGES AND EXPRESSIONS as the theme of this yearbook. Images, like memories, are hazy pictures of school days past, which we all hold in our minds. Expressions are the thoughts put into words which supplement the story told by the pictures. Our experiences of learning in the classroom, cheering our teams to victory, participating in extracurricular activities, dancing at the prom, listening to the A Cappella Choir, and receiving our diplomas, have all been compiled, and the thoughts we have concerning these occasions have been recorded. All we ask of you now is to make your memories complete by reading this book with your friends, and reliving the years at A.H.S. through IMAGES AND EXPRESSIONS.

In Memoriam

J. Roger Spriggs, B.S., M.Ed.

Vocational Technical Teacher of Social Studies

J. Roger Spriggs was a man of many interests who did much for the youth of Attleboro, both as a teacher and Faculty Athletic Manager. He was also instrumental in initiating the Kiwanis Trade School Award for the outstanding vocational student.

Mr. Spriggs was a remarkable man whose word was seldom questioned because of his vast knowledge and dedication to the teaching of others. He learned as much as possible about everything and passed this knowledge on to us.

We, the students of Attleboro Vocational Technical High School, consider ourselves most fortunate to have been enrolled in his classes.

Class History

The bell that called us from vacation
To a higher education
Rang the fall of sixty-seven,
Rang as it rings every year,
And a new class entered here.
Our class would be number one-hundred
(Sorry Class of sixty-nine).
We would work, as you can guess,
To make it closer to the best.
With pep and go and zip we came;
Old A.H.S. was not the same.
We clamored loud at upperclassmen;
We denied we were the lesser men
For being sophs, for after all,
Good things can come in sizes small.
Juniors then, superior by far
To little sophs we thought we were.
We elected Diane Brennan
Steve Ferreira and Mo Scullin
To represent our sophomore class.
More competent they were to pass
The test and do the task,
To give our sophomore class a word
On the student council board.
Steve Ferreira was our prez;
And who did treas—
All our class funds, though small and thin,
Who but Wendy Wallenthin?
With secretary Lawrence and vice-president
Snyder,
With all these officers to guide her,
Our valiant class did try
To look the future in the eye.
Our football heroes we did cheer
Throughout the whole successful year.
On Thanksgiving we proved our worth
When we easily defeated North
In that 'Mud Bowl' in the next town
Too bad North, we put you down.

In basketball, the same sweet story
Of our team's increasing glory;
We put Durfee up a tree an'
Then we went and clobbered Feehan.
In dramatics we weren't slow;
We had our own terrific show.
The theme was 'Now,' if you remember,
It was presented in November.
No matter how they tossed the dice,
With Mr. Genest and Mrs. Price
To guide our way and direct us,
It would be impossible to best us.
We worked hard and tried our best
And it was a great success.
When the season became estival
We had and held our drama festival.
Though sophs, we shared the prize again;
'Best Actress' went to Julie Kane.
A good year had to end at last
And we'd become the junior class
And after summer's grateful rest again
We returned to try our best again.

Now we were the junior class
We were to find we weren't the last,
In quality or in numbers,
In our student council members.
Many runners tried to win,
But we stayed with Diane Brennan,
Steve Ferreira and Mo Scullin.
Of new members, we had four:
Casserly, Lawrence, and two more:
To Judy Baumgartel and Barb Blais,
As to them all, we grateful were
For their time and for their effort;
We only hope that we were worth it.
With Ferreira still our president,
And two officers from last year resident,
Only one new face did appear

That was to fill the vice-president's chair.
Mel Phillips was this one new person
We could have picked a more worse one.
On Turkey Day our 'boys in blue'
Beat the stuffin' outta you-know-who.
We once again did North defeat;
We made them beat a glum retreat.
With victory that made us tall,
And turkeys there awaiting all,
Returning home, we were not slow;
North was, though, 'cause they ate crow!
In basketball we far from wrecked
Our chances to go on to Tech.
Our team gave their best and more;
Our season score was twelve to four.
A record good, you must agree, an'
Though we lost one game to Feehan,
'ON TO TECH' our motto was,
And we got there (in a bus.)
Dramatics we did well-in;
The variety show was 'Tele-In.'
With Mr. Genest and Miss Kelsh, you see,
(and with hosts Messrs. Rocha and Landry)
Our show would of the best be.
In spring the senior play was 'Our Town.'
The actors all had their roles down
Pat, and from where we sat
The applause, it seem'd was ten thousand that
Of "Laugh-In's" lonely little clap.
The actors, after the show,
Gave thanks to Mr. Thibodeau,
Director of the senior play.
Representatives were soon after on their way
To Boys' and Girls' State, there to see
What processes make our state and cities free.
Brian Casserly, Paul Currie, and Pat Ferrara were
To go, but to be completely sure
That someone could go if they could not,
Three more were ready on the spot.
Alan Currie, Bill Brouillard, and Judy Woll were
To fill their several places.

And there were other cases
Or interest in our government.
Gary Gagne did represent
Our school on Good Government Day;
He tried his best in every way.
Soon after that came that happy day
When we left, school ended,
And our separate ways we wended
Until all paths met and ended
In the last route we all would tread
Together, for as someone must have said,
All good things must end at last.
Even the years we shared must pass.

Here it was, here at last!
Our year to be the senior class!
That noble creature, Brahmin, ruler,
The ancient-righted, last-year high-school-er!
That we were, both one and all,
Though next year to fall
To the lowly rank of freshmen,
We'd still try our best, men,
To make our alma mater proud
That she had teachéd all our crowd.
First on our schedule was to elect,
Choose and sanction (and select)
Our student council members nine
To represent us the too-short time
That we would be the senior class—
(At last! At last!! At last!!!)
Steve Ferreira, Judy Woll,
Barbara Blais (and that's not all)
Neil Spellman and LaLiberte,
And still three more, you see,
Bill Brouillard, and Lawrence (Bette)
Brian Casserly and Judy Baumgartel—
(And if you try to rhyme 'Baumgartel'
You will find there's only 'Warmgartel'
So do not tax the poet's brain
To try to rhyme that name again!)—

These did lead our senior class year
With our officers (the same as last year).
The senior prom came in November.
Instead of May, if you remember.
Dee Wendell was the prom queen;
And happy were the seniors seen
At the "Venus de Milo" to celebrate
On certainly the most formal date
In all the senior year.
This year the variety show was
Simply called "Hoyotoho."
Our directors Miss Zahler and Miss Kelsch were,
And our efforts they did spur,
And our efforts successful were.
Dee Wendell led our school cheers;
She, Joyce and Bette since their junior year
Had practiced hard and helped
To spur our cheers, our joyful yelp;
And with the help
In our senior year, of Barb Hindley
They made the weather rather windly
With cries to cheer our football heroes
To keep our opponents down to zeros
In their scores, while we triumphed
With our scores both big and high-umph.
On Thanksgiving Day we cheered with reason
At the end of our football season;
For at the end of the game, you see,
It was an A.H. victory.
Our victory queen was Diane Brillon.
After our victory, though not willin'
North captains came to visit Hilda.
Football co-captains Snyder and Silvia
Chaperoned North's visit to our Hilda
And say hello; of course, (you know).
That's all they'll ever say, (ho-ho).
Three years, dear Hilda, you've been ours,
We've kept you from the April showers,
The summer's heat, and autumn's frost,
And from the win'try blasts of December
We shielded you, so please remember
Next year to come back home again;
Come back and ne'er do roam again,
For we'll be in the stands to cheer
And see you home again next year.
(Sigh, please.)
For the football centennial we fought Feehan;
Wendy Wallcathin was our queen.
The Bristol County Championship was a tie
Among Coyle, Feehan and our guys.
Meantime, in December,
Marcia Nittel became a member
Of a very small group (of one person every year)
Who is chosen good citizen for the D.A.R.
In basketball our score did dive
By one game only. Eleven to five
Our season score was, not bad, we think.
Intellectually in the rink
Our math team fought, and in the pink
They were; Taunton, Foxboro, King Philip they beat with
The Curries, Fremault, Spooner, and Smith
And Lorice Al-Amir, the lone senior girl, it would seem,
Of all the seniors on our team.
What the spring holds in store
Is our play, and much more,
"The Matchmaker" our play's to be.
With Mr. Genest here to see
That things go right and to direct us
A hit 'twill be and we foresee
That success will greet our play.
There still awaits Class Day and the Reception
And our very, very last day
When the future's op'ning gate
Will finally our whole class break
Into people who once did share
The years that we remember here.
